TONOPAH BOY SCOUTS
HIGHLY ENTHUSIASTICTHREE TROOPS ORGANIZED AND PATROL LEADERS ARE SELECTED.

The first meeting of the Tonopah Boy Scouts was held last evening in the high school gymnasium and the enthusiasm manifested, as well as the earnestness, is an indication that the organization will be perfected and that chances of permanency are more than favorable. The plans and purposes of the organization and the machinery provided for its government were explained to the boys by Mr. Dilworth. Then Mr. Cross gave a clear explanation of the Scouts' oath, the Scout law, the Scout salute, the method of advancing in the organization and other information asked for by the boys present. The troops voted unanimously to increase the limit of membership in each patrol to five for the present in order to make room for additional boys who are anxious to become members. Wednesday evening was fixed as the regular evening for the meetings.

The Tonopah local scout council at present is composed of the following well known citizens of the city: Captain Case, Hugh H. Brown, George L. Dilworth, George C. Spitzler, J. J. McQuillan, Fred Ninnis, J. E. Peck, Hamilton Reed, Roy Davenport, R. J. Highland, F. J. Cavannaugh, P. S. Booth, Ben D. Luce, T. A. Frazier, T. F. Landsborough, A. G. Hayscraft, T. F. M. Fitzgerald, W. J. Pike, J. W. Sherwin and J. R. Blair. The first three named are respectively chairman, secretary and treasurer of the council. The council has not yet appointed the chief executive officer of the organization—the scout commissioner.

At present there are three troops organized. Troop No. 1 has Mr. Cross for scout master and George Grier, Ogden Monahan and Ora Lovelock as temporary patrol leaders. Troop No. 2 is under H. W. Stotesbury as scout master and has Bearl Murphy, Tom Connors and Willie Sawle as patrol leaders. Troop No. 3 has T. W. Chapman for scout master and Louis Daoust, Christ Sheerin and Jack Case for patrol leaders. Assistant scout masters and assistant patrol leaders will be appointed later. The boys are already hard at work preparing to pass the examination showing them qualified to be enrolled at the next meeting as "tenderfeet."

FOOD FOR ALLIES.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Secretary McAdoo today told the British, French and Italian representatives that six trainloads of packing house products for export to the allies will move eastward daily for a month.

DEATH OF AN ELK.

The flag that floats over the home of Tonopah lodge No. 1062, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, is flying at half-mast. This is because of the death of a brother, James E. Voorhies died in Arizona as the result of injuries sustained in an explosion in a copper mine. He was from Ruth, Nevada, and was a member of this lodge for two years. The interment will take place at his old home town, Nashville, Tennessee.

NEVADA BOY KILLED
IN NATION'S SERVICEJACK WRIGHT PERISHES WHILE IN ACTION SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

The New York World has the following to say regarding the death of Lieut. J. M. Wright, who was killed in action in France. He was a student in the Goldfield schools in 1906 and 1907 and was a frequent visitor to his cousin, Bud Morris, in Tonopah.

Sarah Morris Greene, sculptor, No. 9 West Ninth street, has received one of the "Gov't. Rush" telegrams from the war department that are slowly dotting the country, officially notifying her of the death of her son, Lieut. Jack M. Wright, of the American aviation service, in an accident on January 24 somewhere in France.

Lieut. Wright was barely 19 years old and the official announcement of his death was his mother's first notification of his commission as an officer. Wright went to France early last spring with the Andover ambulance unit and offered his services immediately upon arrival to the French government. Wright was assigned to and drove a 5-ton truck for four months.

In August the young man volunteered in the American aviation service, soon afterward becoming a cadet flyer and receiving his commission only a few days before his death.

Wright was graduated with honors last spring from Andover, where he was the art editor of both the school paper and the year book. He received his early education in France. Since the beginning of the war he had worked solely with the idea of going back to France to fight.

LEOPOLD'S VERSION.

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 21.—Petrograd dispatches say that an intercepted German wireless message quotes Prince Leopold, the Teuton commander on the eastern front, as telling his troops: "Russia is sick and is trying to contaminate all the countries in the world with her moral infection. We must fight against the disorder inoculated by Trotsky and defend our liberty."

WORK OF MERCY BY LOCAL ORGANIZATIONEMBLEMS RECEIVED BY LOCAL NATIONAL SURGICAL DRESS-INGS COMMITTEE.

Are you a member of the National Surgical Dressings committee, and, if so, have you received the little red, white and gold button that symbolizes the work of mercy that is being done by the organization? If you haven't done it yet, call up the headquarters now, while you are thinking about it, and tell them to put your name down as one who is willing to serve their country in any way they can. Fifty cents a month to help bring our boys back to us safe and well! Aren't you willing to give it? Of course, you are!

Though the last few days have been bitterly cold and snowy, the number of devoted women who place the welfare of our brave boys above their own comfort has not decreased and the work room has been busy as usual. Before their busy fingers the gauze and bandage material quickly change their form and become compresses, drains and bandages. These go out from the work room bearing a healing message from Tonopah to the pain-filled hospitals of Europe.

The Wednesday evening class is especially enthusiastic and active and is turning out a wonderful amount of work. They wish to announce that beginning next week and continuing during Lent they will meet on Thursday evening.

ADVANTAGES TOLD

resulted in as much work per man as the longer shift, because of increased efficiency.

"That has not been our experience," Mr. Tollerton said.

"We got as much work out of the last hour on the piece basis as the first hour," Mr. McBain replied.

"That's what pulled us through," Commissioner McChord said.

The interstate commerce commission has information that some shops are not working as much as eight hours. Mr. Tollerton said he did not think that applied to the West. The Rock Island shops were put on the 8-hour basis, he told the commission, and found that their men were leaving to work for another road which worked nine hours, with pay for nine and one-half hours. When the Rock Island instituted the longer day its men began to return, but another complication resulted in the resignation of numerous competent foremen, who returned to subordinate positions in the shops because they could make more money.

Reasons for congested traffic were sought by the commission in discussion of shop wages and conditions. The operating officials said the weather was responsible.

Mr. McBain said the New York Central now was "right up to date" with engine repairs and had maintained its power throughout the entire winter.

"From December 1 to February 1, the average rating of our engines, that is the load they are expected to pull under normal conditions, was reduced from 35 to 50 per cent," he said. "Inability to maintain the engine rating was due entirely to the weather."

S. L. MOORE and wife were passengers on this morning's train for St. Joseph, Mo., where they expect to make their future home.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE BUTLER.

"See a pin and pick it up—rest of the day you'll have good luck," is an old superstition, but Vivian Martin, while not superstitious, has what she calls her "lucky dime." Also she has a winning smile which is natural and almost perpetual. It was around this smile that Gardner Hunting wrote a story and then a photoplay. This play of cheer and cheerfulness has been very aptly named "Little Miss Optimist," and fits Miss Martin like a glove. You have no doubt seen her in her previous pictures, "The Right Direction," "A Kiss for Susie" and others, and will consider yourself lucky if you see this one. The story deals with the life and adventure of a little girl "newsie," who, because of her cheerfulness and smile, wins many friends. In her own way she is able to baffle a starving musician, and, like all good deeds, this in time brings its own reward. It would not be fair to tell you the story, because you would miss the pleasure of seeing it at the Butler tonight.

A two-reel Mack Sennett comedy, "Are Waitresses Safe." The corners are filled up with fun and nonsense, including the antics of the ice man and the gangsters, not even to mention the refractory soda fountain. Teddy, the Great Dane dog, is in the picture, too, and Ben Turpin, the cross-eyed comic, and Slim Summerville. New, novel gags of the sort that only Mack Sennett studios produce are almost countless.

Tomorrow, Mary Anderson, in "When Men Are Tempted."

MAKE SUCCESSFUL RAID.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Feb. 21.—New Zealand troops have captured a few prisoners in a successful raid on the Flanders front.

FINAL ACTION DEFERRED.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The senate has virtually abandoned hope of disposing of the railroad bill before adjournment today. It is planned to continue the debate tomorrow. Amendments have delayed final action. The senate adopted the amendment of Robinson of Arkansas, eliminating the clause providing for a reasonable allowance for betterments and road extensions made in 1917.
